STAND TOGETHER FOR SAFE SCHOOLS

Sunday, Dec. 7 at 7 pm

Unitarian Universalist Church
401 Kings Hwy N, Cherry Hill, NJ 08034

Honoring those who died too soon.
Exploring strategies to stem the rising epidemic of violence in America's schools and communities

Program:

- Maura Schwartz shares the story of her Mom, the Sandy Hook Psychologist who died putting her students first.
- Lieut. Sean Redmond, Cherry Hill Police Director of Training, reviews strategies he uses with school personnel.
- Trauma and Violence Prevention Specialist, Center for Family Services, Camden NJ, discusses the Cure Model.
- Carole Stiller – NJ President, Million Mom March/Brady Campaign, speaks on school clubs for gun violence prevention.
- St. Joseph Pro-Cathedral Children's Choir of Camden performs.

Free and Open to the Public

Sponsors:

NJ UU Gun Violence Prevention Task Force and
The Coalition for Peace Action